

How to Promote Court Reform in the Media

"If a Nation expects to be ignorant and free in a state of civilization, it expects what never was and never will be.... If we are to guard against ignorance and remain free, it is the responsibility of every American to be informed."

-THOMAS JEFFERSON

Part I – The Basics

- 1) Study up. Know your issue. Focus on a theme.
Review our background publications, Press Releases and Alerts.
Have them handy, along with any timely news articles you may wish to quote.

- 2) Pray up. Pray for wisdom -- and boldness if you need it.
Ask for the right words that will help “those with ears to hear” to truly understand the issues and principles which are at stake.

- 3) Speak up. a) Write, E-mail or Fax Letters-to-the Editor (Media Pt. II)
Your efforts can impact thousands of readers & significantly influence information “gatekeepers” all across the country!
 - Compose your Letters-to-the Editor using our Sample Letters and Talking Points.
 - Communicate your
 - Comments,
 - Complaints and/or
 - Commendations on their news reporting and editorials.
Suggest stories they should include in their News
 - Coverage. Note what they fail to report;
 - Confront liberal bias. – Then use this
 - ✓ Checklist as a reminder to ensure that all
 - Correspondence is
 - Clear,
 - Concise,
 - Courteous,
 - Cites specific examples for more authoritative writing, and
 - Credits sources when utilizing direct quotes.

* Internet links are provided below to news sites that allow you to write Letters to-the-Editor online. Remember to use the op-ed page as a forum to either commend or expose a Senator’s or Congressman’s vote/position on issues in both the national press & in their home state paper(s). Ask other readers to contact their representatives as needed.

- b) Call and/or E-mail/Fax Talk Radio & Talk TV (Media Pt.III)
Talk shows are perhaps the best way you can quickly disseminate information to a wide audience and generate action among politically aware and active listeners. For Court Reform education & activation, conservative talk formats provide the opportunity to inform and/or mobilize thousands, or even millions, of people with one phone call. Find your ‘comfort zone’ and begin there. If you’re just starting out, call local talk shows and/or e-mail and fax them with your comments--
