December 2, 1985

Dear Geneva Summiteer:

The Geneva Summit was a wonderful week, wasn't it! And the best part was that our principal objective was a smashing success -- President Reagan stood firm on SDI. I feel that we had an important part in building the political "climate" that enabled him to do that. Thank you for participating in this historic event. It would have been dreadful, wouldn't it, if Jesse Jackson and Bella Abzug had gotten all the extra-Summit media exposure!

Each of you made an important contribution to our Geneva excursion. The many attractive and articulate leaders in our delegation, from a broad political and geographic spectrum, made our "presence" in Geneva important -- and far and away better than the pacifists' presence. I want especially to thank Helen Marie Taylor for her generous contribution which made it possible to send our Advance Team to Geneva to make our arrangements (without which the week would have been impossible), Audrey Jadden and Ginna Lewis for their essential contacts in Geneva (language, media, business, and social), John McCarthy for the essential use of his office, and those who hosted parties for us: Ambassador Faith Whittlesey, Jim Fees, and Don Ryan.

I have reviewed the videos of our TV coverage. While, of course, we didn't get the television time we deserved, what we did get was certainly well worth the expense and effort of the trip, and it was a big "plus" for our cause in every way. If anybody wants a copy of the TV coverage, we could have a video made for you for $50. I don't think it's worth that price, but we can make it for you if you want it.

Enclosed for your personal use only is a list of those who were with us in Geneva. This was a very special group of people who are dedicated to the cause of freedom and peace through strength.

I would appreciate your returning the enclosed form to me. Enclosed are two newspaper articles. Many people have told me that they read about us, so I would also appreciate your sending me any press clippings you have (and pictures).

Wishing a Blessed Christmas for you and your family,

Faithfully,

Phyllis Schlafly
